WELL-KNOWN MAN ACCIDENTALLY KILLED? Scarcely breathing and with a broken neck, Squire B.T. Gleaves, one of the oldest residents of the 25th District of Wilson County and a prominent citizen of Mt. Juliet, was found lying beneath a small gasoline engine in a spring house near his home in a dying condition. He is believed to have been trying to crank the engine. He was alone at the time of the accident and was not discovered until more than an hour later. Squire was in his sixty-fourth year and had been a member of the Wilson Co. court for a number of years. He is survived by three sons and one daughter, Will Gleaves, B.T. Gleaves Jr. and Julian Gleaves and Mrs. H.A. Frazier of Fort Collins Colo. The deceased was an uncle of A.A. Adams, editor -in-chief of the Democrat and E.E. Adams, publisher and secretary. Squire was one of the most prominent farmers in the County... Not only has Mt. Juliet lost an estimable citizen but likewise the county at large who remember him as being a man filled with vim, energy and enthusiasm. Funeral services were held at the home and burial was in the family cemetery on the homeplace in the presence of a large number of friends and neighbors. Lebanon Democrat - July 3, 1919
