

A CARD.

We, the undersigned, passengers on board the steamer SALTOGA, from New Orleans to Alexandria and Shreveport, La., take this method of testifying our gratitude and respect for the kindness and courtesy extended to us by Capt. Samuel Ayles, and Messrs. R. F. Harrison, J. G. Harrington and W. J. Woodruff, clerks, on the trip, and beg to commend this boat to the travelling public as one unsurpassed for speed, safety and comfort, and whose officers have no superiors in their attention to the comfort and pleasure of passengers.

John Read,
F. A. Bonita,
T. J. Conally,
Otis M. Humphrey,
Surg U. S. A.,
Jesse Stancel,
T. Dettlinger,
Frank Vera,
N. B. Keene,
E. R. Fienelleu,
F. Proseman,
D. Ulrite,

G. A. Bourquin,
L. Wells,
N. O. White,
F. Bartol,
T. Vaughn,
J. Citron,
E. Archibard,
Shep. J. Harris,
S. Alex. Gray,
Isaac Levy,
J. Ben Smith,
R. D. Pitte,

and fifty others. Je30-2dpⁿ

J. O. NIXON,

Office No. 141 Gravier Street,

Je20-2dplm

UP STAIRS.

M'ME OAPRELL,

The Only Great Natural Clairvoyant,

Has established in this city a reputation which supports her claims as being the only true Natural Clairvoyant and Spirit Visionist that has ever existed upon this hemisphere. Her medical powers, exercised as a curator, in every case that has been brought before her, universally secures the commendation and approval of every one who is in the least respect conversant with the ills of human nature.

Horoscopes or Charts of Life written by simply knowing date of birth.

Residence 129 Customhouse street, between Bourbon and Dauphine streets. Je30-2dplⁿ