

"Child's Delight."

This is the name of a new illustrated monthly for children, in its first volume, and published at Baltimore, Md., which comes to us from the author, Miss Laura Keene, daughter of our late citizen, N. B. Keene, Esq. The magazine is handsomely printed on fine paper, with well ordered matter, exactly suited to young minds. The accomplished editor evinces both tact, and talent in the origination of her subjects, and deserves credit for the good work she proposes, which is to continue the magazine from month to month and put it in book form at the end of each year. The subscription is only $1 10, and no family should be without the Child's Delight.
