

The State Medical Society, which has been in session at Abingdon, adjourned on Thursday night after a sumptuous banquet. The following officers were elected: Dr. Gleaves, of Wytheville, president, Drs. Cunningham, of Richmond, Campbell, of Abingdon, White, of Farmville, Jenks, of Culpeper, Ward, of Norfolk, and Chancellor, of Charlottesville, vice-presidents; Dr. Edwards, of Richmond, recording secretary and treasurer; Dr. Tompkins, of Richmond, corresponding secretary. Richmond was chosen as the place of holding the next annual meeting.